Case of Senator Burton of Kansas.

Since the conviction of Senator Burton of Kansas everybody has been disposed to jump on him. The public appear delighted that a member of the Senate is thrown into jail. It happens, however, that there are two sides to his case, and it is the duty of the public to treat the matter fairly. Senator Burton was convicted of violating a provision of the Revised Statutes of the United States which forbids a Senator or other official of the government from receiving or agreeing to receive any compensation for any services in relation to any proceeding, contract, claim, controversy or other matter or thing "in which the United States is a party or directly or indirectly interested" before any department, bureau or officer. The indictment charged that a proceeding was pending in the Post-Office Department to inquire whether a certain corporation known as the Rialto Grain and Securities Company was conducting a scheme for obtaining money by false pretenses through the mails of the United States and whether a fraud order should be issued by the Postmaster General against that corporation. The indictment further charged that the defendant as a Senator of the United States unlawfully agreed to receive from said corporation $2500 as compensation for services rendered by him in relation to such proceeding before the Post-Office Department. The testimony must be regarded as establishing the fact that Senator Burton did actually agree to represent the Rialto Grain and Securities Company in the proceeding for the sum mentioned and that he received $500 on account of his services.

It follows that the conviction was undoubtedly right if it be true that the United States was "directly or indirectly interested" in the proceeding before the Post-Office Department. When the case came before the United States Supreme Court Justices Brewer, White and Peckham dissented from the view that the United States was interested in the proceeding before the Post-Office Department. The dissenting opinion was written by Justice Brewer, who declared that the construction of the law adopted by the majority wrote into the statute an offense which Congress never placed there. We of Louisiana all know the legal ability of Justice White, and when he says that Senator Burton did not violate the statute in question, we may well pause and ask ourselves whether justice has not miscarried in this case.—New Orleans Item.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me to death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven, permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at Arcadia Valley Drug Co.'s store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

WANTED—A good stableman. A first-class horse-carrier and one not afraid to work. Will pay the price and give steady job.

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Buelen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Stikel, of Miletus, W. Va. "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. 25c at Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

If you wish to live on easy street trade at Miller's store, Arcadia. He sells the cheapest and has the best goods in town.

Taken as directed, it becomes the greatest curative agent for the relief of suffering humanity ever devised. Such is Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

The Two Cent Fare.

At the coming session of the Missouri Legislature the two cent passenger fare bill will be pushed to the front. The representative from this county and the senator from this district, are earnest advocates of this measure. The railroads contend that they will lose money by such a law if it is passed. Now let's look for a moment and see if this contention is correct. You can go to the depot in this city and buy a round trip ticket to St. Louis for $5.90; that is as cheap as you can buy a ticket here, that is 3 cents a mile less 10 per cent for the round trip. Again, you can go to the depot in this city, buy a round trip ticket to Bismarck, pay $1.55 for it, get off the train at Bismarck, you have plenty of time, over an hour, step into the depot at Bismarck, buy a round trip ticket to St. Louis, good for four or five days and pay $3.60 for it, add $1.55 you pay for your round trip ticket from Fredericktown to Bismarck and it makes your round trip ticket from Fredericktown to St. Louis cost you $5.15, whereas, if you buy a ticket in Fredericktown you pay $5.80 for it, yet you go on the same time, and get to St. Louis at the same time and it costs you 65 cents less to buy your ticket the other way; then again, De Soto is supposed to be 42 miles from St. Louis and the fare one way is $1.20, yet you can go to the depot at De Soto and buy a ticket good for ten rides to St. Louis or return for $8.85, making the fare a little over a cent and a half a mile from De Soto to St. Louis. A gentleman stated to the Democrat-News this week that he took his whole family to St. Louis a few weeks ago. He bought tickets for them to Bismarck and then to De Soto and from De Soto into St. Louis used a ten trip ticket which he had previously bought, and saved by the operation nearly $6; the gentleman had seven in his family and he is in Fredericktown this week. Now if the railroad can sell tickets from De Soto at 1-2 cents a mile, and make money, can sell round trip tickets from Bismarck for $3.60 and make money, why can't they sell them from other points at the same rate and make money. If they can afford to sell tickets from De Soto at 1-2 cents a mile, they can certainly afford to sell tickets from other points on their line for 2 cents per mile and still come out ahead. This discrimination in passenger rates against Fredericktown and other points in Southeast Missouri will be called to the attention of the proper authorities with the hope that this unjust discrimination can be adjusted satisfactorily.—Fredericktown Democrat-News.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters, and I rejoice to say three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by Arcadia Valley Drug Co. Price 50c.
